

CALL FOR PAPERS

2010 International Energy Workshop

Stockholm, June 21st – 23rd

http://www.internationalenergyworkshop.org/Workshop_2010.html

Deadline for submission: February 15th, 2010

The 2010 International Energy Workshop is being organised in cooperation with the KTH Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden, and will be held from June 21st to 23rd, 2010.

The International Energy Workshop (IEW - <http://www.internationalenergyworkshop.org/>), first held in 1981, is an informal network of analysts actively working on international energy issues. The IEW provides a venue for scholars and researchers to compare quantitative energy projections and to analyse the interrelationship between climate change and energy. This years meeting will include three plenary sessions and approximately 80 presentations covering a wide array of topics.

Researchers and practitioners in developed and developing countries are invited to submit original papers with new and innovative results on scientific or practical experiences that focus on the following main topics:

- Climate change - mitigation and adaptation
- Energy and transport modelling
- Economics of Low Carbon Technologies

Selected papers will be presented and discussed in thematic sessions, circulated during the meeting and also posted in the meeting website.

Submission of papers

Full papers or long abstracts (minimum 1000 words) in .pdf version should be submitted by e-mail to info@internationalenergyworkshop.org before February 15th, 2010 together with the following information in the mail text:

- title of the work;
- specify if it is a paper or a long abstract;
- JEL classification code;
- presenting author (name and surname) if the paper is selected;
- presenting author's personal data (affiliation, country, e-mail);
- co-authors (names and surnames).

Please note that each person can present only one selected paper. If you want to submit more than one paper we kindly ask you to give us the above information for each paper.

Final papers will be due 1 month before the meeting.
